A new feature of abcgrr.org is "mission notes." These will be postings forwarded by the Executive Minister and Ministerial Staff.

The note on the homecoming of Elizabeth Luella (Betty Lue) Johnson, missionary to the Chin, was posted as an extended obituary earlier this month.

Readers may find this at abcgrr.org/mission

Please note that the abcgrr2.org site includes some courses that were originally composed as FLASH based interactive experiences. Because of Adobe's decision to drop support AND most recent editions of web browsers no longer displaying these, these courses are being recomposed in a more acceptable (HTML5 for "techies") format.

A Word From Paul Gibson, ABCGRR Executive Minister

IT'S ALL ABOUT JESUS. At least it should be the main emphasis during this time of year, but we all know it is about other things too. It's about shopping, Santa, decorating, food, family and many other things, but, the main thing is Jesus.

Some have also made it about doing what they think is the right thing, such as saying "Merry Christmas" instead of "Happy Holidays". Or they make it a big deal when a public place doesn't allow the nativity scene, or get upset when radio (who listens to radio anymore?) and TV only play Christmas music without the religious emphasis. I don't think Jesus would be too concerned about those things.

The problem is not that the world has taken Jesus out of Christmas, but that we have taken Jesus out of our everyday lives. If we get too upset at those other things it may mean that it is all about appearances for us, not what's real. We are more concerned about Jesus being in the public realm than we are about Him being alive and well in our hearts and minds. Make special room for Him in your lives this Christmas and then let the world feel His love, hope, and grace as they spend time with you. My mom and dad lived that out and demonstrated it for me. Dad is in heaven but Mom is still here on earth and I will be with her on the 18th to celebrate her 94th birthday.

I met Dan Chetti, one of our missionaries in the Middle East, a few weeks ago and he thanked me several times for our region's great support in that part of the world. He and his wife Sarah are also one of those couples who are living out the love of Jesus. He wanted us to know how much our support has helped in planting new ministries. Please keep them in your prayers.

I am excited as we get ready to welcome in the new year. We have many new and exciting things happening in our region and will be sharing more about them in our January newsletter. For now, take extra time to enjoy family and friends. Also, look around and see if there are any people who may not be close to family and find a way to reach out to them with God's love.

Keep our missionaries in your prayers this time of year as many of them are away from family. The Goods just arrived in Hungary and will celebrate Christmas there. Fortunately, they can celebrate with the Stantons who are also in Hungary. The Dieselbergs will be coming home for Christmas so be praying for them. Shortly after Christmas Paul Rollet will be heading back to the Philippines, so keep him in your prayers also.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from all of us at the Great Rivers Region office. May you experience every good gift that Jesus has to give and then let it flow through you to all those around you.

LET IT FLOW!

Paul

Face to Face: A Help for Churches and Pastors Searching For God's Call

Face to Face is an opportunity for Search Committees of churches seeking full time pastors (not bivocational) to interview pastors and seminarians seeking to discern God's next step. Each participating church and each pastor will be able to participate in several interviews during the two day event. On January 21, during the morning worship service, the congregation will celebrate God's faithfulness and provision with a mortgage burning ceremony. 2018 marks the 20th anniversary of our building dedication.
